

G503 WWII 1943 Ford GPW Jeep Finding your Frame number

This article helps you find your 1943 WWII Ford GPW Jeep Frame serial number

Your WWII jeep serial number is an important part of finding the history behind your jeep. Each WWII jeep was assigned an individual serial number. On Fords, the frame was stamped with this serial number and can be found on the front driver side frame horn. If you look just behind where the shock is mounted you see a number stamped into the frame. This is your Serial number for your jeep.

Are there other serial numbers?
