

G503 WWII 1943 Ford GPW Jeep Finding your Engine number

This article helps you find your 1943 WWII Ford GPW Jeep Engine serial number

Your WWII jeep serial number is an important part of finding the history behind your jeep. Each WWII jeep was assigned an individual serial number. On Fords, the Engine serial number was stamped on the block to the right of the Oil filler tube. On WWII Ford jeeps, the Serial number and engine numbers matched at production time.

Are there other serial numbers?
